HOLLAND & SHERRY

The Possibilities of Custom

An exclusive fabric preview from Manno Clothing & Tailoring

Extraordinary cloth. Thoughtful design. Made expressly for you.

ONE CLOTH IS ONLY THE BEGINNING.

Holland & Sherry's fabric collections are remarkable on their own, but the real opportunity begins when exceptional cloth is paired with custom design. A fabric traditionally considered for a sport coat might become a car coat, field jacket, overshirt or three-piece suit. Details such as collars, pockets, buttons, inlays, linings and proportions can be chosen around the way you actually dress.

This lookbook is about possibility.

The following concepts are not a catalog of fixed garments. They are starting points - examples of how we can interpret Holland & Sherry cloth for business, travel, weekends, formal occasions and outerwear. During a custom consultation, we refine the fabric, model and details around you.

MANNO CLOTHING & TAILORING

Custom clothing, tailoring and wardrobe guidance

PURE CASHMERE

Luxury Casual

An exceptionally soft expression of custom. Pure cashmere lends itself beautifully to refined overshirts and shirt jackets - relaxed pieces with the hand, drape and finish of true luxury.

FOUR SEASONS

Evening & Statement Jacketing

Rich texture and expressive color create a sport coat that feels distinctive without sacrificing refinement. A compelling choice for dinners, events and elevated seasonal dressing.

ESTATE TWEEDS

British Heritage, Reimagined

Traditional character becomes remarkably versatile when interpreted through custom tailoring. Consider a tailored sport coat with a stand collar, suede details or other personal finishing touches.

CASHIQUE SUITS

Luxury Super 160's with Cashmere & Silk

For occasions that call for something exceptional. Cashique blends fine merino wool, cashmere and silk for softness, drape and quiet richness - ideal for suits, formal wear and special commissions.

COUNTRY ELEGANCE

The Sport Coat, Expanded

Custom allows a classic sport coat to do more. A detachable zip-in inlay, patch pockets and relaxed construction create a piece that moves naturally from business to travel and weekends.

COUNTRY ELEGANCE

Tailored as a Complete Suit

Unexpected cloth can become exceptional tailoring. This olive striped worsted is imagined as a three-piece suit with a curved peak lapel and pleated trousers - distinctive, personal and unmistakably custom.

OVERCOATS & TOPCOATS

Winter Trench Coat

Custom is not limited to suits and sport coats. Holland & Sherry cloth can be interpreted as outerwear with purpose - here, a refined trench combines classic British styling with protection for cold, wet weather.

CAR COAT

Versatility Through Custom Design

A removable zip-in inlay extends the usefulness of a tailored car coat across the season. The result is practical outerwear without giving up elegance, proportion or personal expression.

CAR COAT

Double Breasted Elegance

Crafted from Holland & Sherry's luxurious cashmere and merino wool blend, this double-breasted car coat offers exceptional warmth, softness, and refined sophisictation. The rich burgundy tone brings understated distinction, while the classic cut provides timeless style for city and country wear.

CASHMERE & MERINO WOOL BLEND

EXCEPTIONAL WARMTH

TIMELESS BRITISH STYLE

IDEAL FOR COLD, RAIN AND SLEET

CAR COAT

Double-Breasted Elegance

A rich burgundy cloth becomes a sophisticated double-breasted car coat - proof that custom outerwear can be both functional and deeply personal.

HARRIS TWEED

The Hunting Jacket

Authentic Harris Tweed brings texture, durability and heritage to a field-inspired jacket that can still live comfortably in the city. Sporting details, tailored proportions and custom finishing make it transitional rather than costume.

CASHIQUE JACKETS

Business Professional

A brown ground with a refined blue windowpane becomes an elevated business sport coat. Pair it with tailored grey trousers, a blue shirt and knit tie for a polished wardrobe that remains approachable.

SHERRY TWEED

Modern Norfolk Jacket

A contemporary interpretation of the Norfolk jacket shows what custom can really mean: throat latch, patch-and-flap pockets, horn buttons and a half belt at the back. One cloth, multiple ways to wear it - business smart, casual or country.

CUSTOM WITHOUT LIMITS

Begin with the fabric. Build the garment around your life.

Explore Holland & Sherry's distinctive fabric offerings in person and let us show you what is possible. From suits and sport coats to outerwear, weekend pieces and one-of-a-kind commissions, custom gives us the freedom to create something that belongs in your wardrobe - not simply on a rack.
